Multi-Domain Weapons Technology Pt 2: Tailorable Trajectories

8 JUN 2023
Virtual

Event Description

Doolittle Institute hosted Part 2 of the Multi-Domain Weapons Technologies Technical Showcase event. This portion focused on Tailorable Trajectories and once again featured Dr. Anne Marie Petrock, Senior Research Scientist for Warheads Technology of the Army DEVCOM Armaments Center. Dr. Petrock's follow-on open-to-the-public presentation was well attended, and she (and 15 other government attendees from various DoD agencies) heard from 2 industry presenters on their capabilities in closed sessions following her presentation. This event culminated the first collaboration between the Munitions Directorate and another OUSD R&E Kinetic Weapons Community of Interest member, Army DEVCOM AC.
